

IN THIS ISSUE:

#1 Gigi Goode has had a whole lot of success in the show—at only 21 years old, she has proven to be very still competition. Although her momentum has stalled since the beginning of the season, she still has the best overall record. With 2 maxi challenge wins and never landing in the bottom, we think she has a pretty good chance at winning the whole season. She'll need to kick it into gear these last few weeks to keep the other queens off her heels.

#2 Jaida Essence Hall has been a force to be reckoned with up until this most recent episode when she landed in the bottom 2. This is the only thing really separating Gigi from her, since Gigi has never been in the bottom. Jaida has been consistent on her looks and mostly consistent in the challenge. Along with Gigi, she also has 2 maxi challenge wins. It will take a lot to bring her back to the top after last week's performance but she's definitely possible.

#3 Crystal Methyd is the underdog of the season, bringing a unique flare that none of the other queens have—this factor alone might help her come out on top at the end. She is most definitely the up-and-coming and can't seem to do any wrong. If she can keep it up and get a couple more wins under her belt, she can become a serious threat. That right now, with only 1 maxi challenge win, Jaida and Gigi still have outperformed her overall.

#4 Jackie Cox has been such a delight to watch this season. She has a quirky personality and has given a voice to Atlanta drag queens. Unfortunately, Jackie has not been able to pull out any maxi challenge wins even though she has been in the top more than anyone else. She has landed in the bottom 2 twice, she won't make it through another lip sync. Unless she performs insanely well next week, we think she is most likely the next queen to be snatching away.

DISQUALIFIED

Sherry Pie has been a fan favorite since the main part of the season was filmed. There was no way to completely cut her out of the season, but they have done a pretty good job of cutting down on her screen time. At this point, we hope she hangs and gets eliminated before Top 2. It would simply be unfair to another queen that deserved to be there more than her. It's pretty odd watching a season with somebody who no longer is part of the running for the crown.

SEASON 12 PREDICTIONS

Top 5

We have officially reached the top 5 queens of season 12. Who will come out with the crown? Here are our rankings and predictions.

Gigi Goode

Jaida Essense Hall

Crystal Methyd

Jackie Cox

~~Sherry Pie~~

This could potentially be one of the closest seasons of Drag Race since season 9. Every queen has something different that they bring to the table. We hope and pray that Sherry Pie doesn't end up in the Top 3—but with how things are looking, it could be very possible. Our dream Top 3 is Gigi, Jaida and Crystal Methyd (RIP to Heidi who was eliminated this past week, she was most definitely a fan favorite of the season). With how it looks now, one queen stepping up or messing up one week could change the whole game.

#1

Gigi Goode has had a whole lot of success on the show—at only 21 years old, she has proven to be very stiff competition. Although her momentum has stalled since the beginning of the season, she still has the best overall record. With 3 maxi challenge wins and never landing in the bottom, we think she has a pretty good chance at winning the whole season. She'll need to kick it into gear these last few weeks to keep the other queens off her heels.

#2

Jaida Essence Hall has been a force to be reckoned with up until this most recent episode when she landed in the bottom 2. This is the only thing really separating Gigi from her, since Gigi has never been in the bottom. Jaida has been consistent on her looks and mostly consistent in the challenges. Along with Gigi, she also has 3 maxi challenge wins. It will take a lot to bring her back to the top after last week's performance but it's definitely possible.

#3

Crystyl Methyd is the wierdo of the season, bringing a unique flare that none of the other queens have—this factor alone might help her come out on top at the end. She is most definitely on the up-swing and can't seem to do any wrong. If she can keep it up and get a couple more wins under her belt, she can become a serious threat. But right now, with only 1 maxi challenge win, Jaida and Gigi still have outperformed her overall.

#4

Jackie Cox has been such a delight to watch this season. She has a quirky personality and has given a voice to Muslim drag queens. Unfortunately, Jackie has not been able to pull out any maxi challenge wins even though she has been in the top more than anyone else. She has landed in the bottom 2 twice, she won't make it through another lip sync. Unless she performs insanely well next week, we think she is most likely the next queen to be sashaying away.

DISQUALIFIED

Sherry Pie has been later disqualified since the main part of the season was filmed. There was no way to completely edit her out of the season, but they have done a pretty good job of cutting down on her screen time. At this point, we hope she bombs and gets eliminated before Top 3, it would simply be unfair to another queen that deserved to be there more than her. Since VH1 filmed the entire season before learning of Sherry's misconduct, they are airing the season as planned. Although, they are vigilant in editing her out where possible—and they be sure to leave this message on the screen at the beginning and end of every episode...IN CASE WE FORGOT???

In light of recent developments and Sherry Pie's statement, Sherry Pie has been disqualified from RuPaul's Drag Race. Out of respect for the hard work of the other queens, VH1 will air the season as planned.

Sherry Pie will not appear in the grand finale scheduled to be filmed later this spring.

This is Joey, I want to start by saying how sorry I am that I caused such trauma and pain and how horribly embarrassed and disgusted I am with myself. I know that the pain and hurt that I have caused will never go away and I know that what I did was wrong and truly cruel. Until being on RuPaul's Drag Race, I never really understood how much my mental health and taking care of things meant. I learned on that show how important "loving yourself" is and I don't think I have ever loved myself. I have been seeking help and receiving treatment since coming back to NYC. I truly apologize to everyone I have hurt with my actions. I also want to say how sorry I am to my sisters of season 12 and honestly the whole network and production company. All I can do is change the behavior and that starts with me and doing that work.

I am blown away by the responses to our show, #NightGownsOnQuibi 🥰! Feeling like a proud mama...aka executive producer, art-director, host, ladder-climber, and mascot!!!

"This is among the most life-affirming shows you could find on any platform."
The New York Times

"...explosive stage numbers that will leave your jaws on the floor..."
Entertainment Weekly

"...as dazzling when capturing live performances as when profiling the show's fabulous ensemble..."
The Los Angeles Times

"NightGowns is a feast for the eyes and a blanket for the heart."
GQ

"A type of queer media never before seen on TV."
ScreenRant

"NightGowns was made for a time when we could all use some beauty, grace and entertainment in our lives."
USA Today
